

Saint John's Tidings

SEPTEMBER 2010

From the Rector

Saint John's Tidings... Let's Make it Official

Some months ago, we announced a "name the newsletter" contest, hoping to get some good ideas to give our monthly publication a little more exciting appellation than "St. John's Newsletter." Sadly, there was little interest. Over about three months, we received no more than six suggestions. Several had to do with grapes and vines and such, which we (the parish staff which regularly meets together to coordinate calendar, worship and other matters) thought was a tad over-worked.

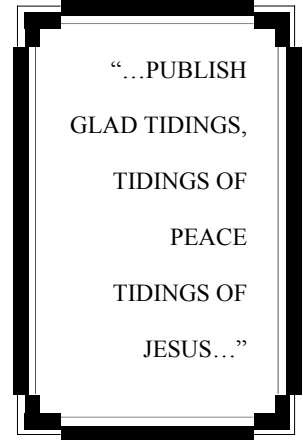

The suggestion which seemed most generally workable was "Tidings", which, of course, generally means "an announcement of an event, occurrence, or piece of news..." Beyond that bare bones understanding, it's Biblical: John the Baptist brought tidings of a coming prophet who would be so great that John would not deem himself worthy to untie his sandals. In many ways, the word has found its way into Christian literature and music. One of the great evangelical hymns we sing has as its refrain:

"Publish glad tidings, tidings of peace, tidings of Jesus, redemption and release." The name of the tune is even Tidings. (Hymnal 1982, 539)

Even though we had received no new suggestions for months, we just let things sit, hoping perhaps to receive more rousing suggestions. None came. Then recently, when Beverley and I were in Southern California, we visited her old parish church, Holy Family in South Pasadena. I picked up a copy of the diocesan newspaper and noticed the title: "The Tidings." I thought, that settles it. If the title is good enough for the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Los Angeles, it should be good enough for us. So Saint John's Tidings it is. Thanks to all who submitted suggestions. Unfortunately, we're not certain who submitted Tidings, but thanks just the same.

Blessings,

Fr. Harold+

Intinction ...and a Request

Last month, we informed you about a change in St. John's "Intinction Policy", stating that we had recently learned that the LEM's (Lay Eucharistic Ministers, or those who "serve" the chalice at communion) had been trained to discourage communicants to intinct their own host/wafer at communion. I stated that from now on, St. John's LEM's would honor any method people wish to receive the host and cup, whether it receiving them both separately, intincting the host/wafer themselves or inviting the LEM to intinct for them. I added that in the Episcopal Church in the USA this new policy has actually been common practice for decades.

Finally, I said that the job of our LEM's would be easier if we had more traditionally shaped silver chalices. The pewter chalices and flagons are lovely but extremely difficult to use---I'm sure you've heard us accidentally release the lid which makes a loud clanking sound against the body of the flagon. Moreover, silver is also more sanitary because it is less porous. I invited anyone interested in providing traditional silver altar vessels to please call the parish office.

Now, here's the Good News: Someone actually did! We have $500 promised toward the purchase of silver altar vessels. A full set would be in the $2500- $3000 range. Any others out there interested in this?

Blessings,
Fr. Harold+

Office Closed

The office will be closed Monday, September 6 in observation of Labor Day.

From the Music Director

St. John's Parish Choir will begin rehearsing on Wednesday nights on Sept. 8 at 7:00 p.m. We rehearse until 8:30 p.m. weekly and then sing primarily at the 10:30 a.m. liturgy on Sundays. Choir is truly a ministry to each other and St. John's. As musical and liturgical leaders, the choir adds leadership to worship vocally, but also in so many other ways. Through our weekly rehearsals on Wednesday nights, we also get to know each other and know some of the joys and challenges we experience in our lives, pray for each other and sharing weekly. Our Parish Choir also serves at significant times in the life of St. John's, including Christmas Eve, Holy Week, Ash Wednesday and other special liturgies that happen during the year. So we are not just looking for perfect voices and musicians, but people who want to serve in ministry. Contact Randy Knutson at the church office 369-3381 or randyknutson@sbcglobal.net to learn more or to let him know you would like to come to rehearsal; September is an especially good month to come and join us!

Mark Your Calendars Now!

Sunday October 3 will be the day we bless the animals of the parish. We will again meet outside on the grounds behind (to the west) the building at 10:30 for an informal Holy Eucharist with animal blessing, in honor of Blessed Francis of Assisi.

Sunday October 17 will be the day of the Parish Picnic. While all the liturgical arrangements have yet to be worked out, this year's parish picnic will be coupled to a Ministry Fair. At last count, St. John's had around 27 ministries. Each one will have the opportunity to set up an exhibit table and talk about how they serve God and St. John's, as well as (hopefully) recruit new people. Learn about our array of outreach, spiritual formation, worship, fun and fellowship and other ministries, while having a grand old time at the parish picnic!

Choristers

Choristers, St. John's choir and music experience for kids grades 1-6 will begin on Wednesday, September 1 at 4:30 p.m. and lasting for one hour. We invite any children that would like exploring music through singing, instruments and bells to join us. We will meet every week on Wednesdays and then share what we do with the congregation on Sundays at the 10:30 a.m. liturgy. Choristers is a wonderful way to begin knowing more about music and developing musical gifts. Please contact Randy Knutson at the church office, 369-3381 or randyknutson@sbcglobal.net to find out more

Youth News

It began with a few phone calls and grew from there: we are delighted to have a group of new lay leaders stepping forward to give input and fresh ideas to our Youth Group this year at St. John's. We had our first meeting in middle August and they were excited about the idea of some new activities and directions for our Youth Group this year. This group includes Allison Williams, Aleathea Langone, Sheila Filomeo and Katie Newsome with Randy Knutson helping to bring them together. Look for more activities and new ideas to be coming from this enthusiastic group. Keep them in your prayers and be open to new ways the Parish and members can help with this ministry.

As I continue my education at Church Divinity School of the Pacific one of the requirements for the M. Div. degree is field education, time spent in ministry and church life away from the home parish. This has always been a concern, when and how this could work out for me without leaving my work here at St. John's as Music Director, and especially needing to be present on Sunday Mornings. During our time with Fr. Basil Matthews as our interim Rector and Diocesan Conflicts, this was not the right time to try to do this. Last year was also an important transitional time. However, I have been fortunate in that I have found an opportunity to do field education, serving mostly on Thursdays at Trinity Cathedral in Sacramento. It will include a worship service, community time and classes in the evening. I will be able to be involved in Trinity's ministry and still be in Lodi on Sunday mornings. I'm grateful that this opportunity opened up so that I can still be involved in the worship and life of St. John's and also experience ministry at Trinity Cathedral in Sacramento. This will continue through the entire year, from September through May, concluding, I hope, with my graduation in May of 2011. I covet your prayers as this ministry and spiritual journey continues for me in the coming year.

In Christ,

Randy Knutson

All-Church Children's Faith Formation Workshop Saturday, September 25, 9:30 am - 1:00 pm

Not everyone has young children, but everyone has a stake in the Sunday school. Not everyone is called to teach, but we are all called to help nurture and support the faith of the children in our congregation. That's why there's a way for everyone to be involved in this month's children's formation workshop.

If you have been entrusted with the care of a child, or if you have been called to teach, please attend this workshop discussion to help plan for the Sunday school year and the future of children's Christian education at St. John's. There are other ways to get involved too, so please consider offering your support even if you don't plan to work with the Sunday school.

Three ways to participate:

1. Come and share your ideas and receive support for your work with our children.
2. Provide care for the children of workshop participants so that parents and caregivers can take part in the day's activities without worrying about childcare.
3. Contribute to the noon meal: help provide food, prepare lunch, and clean up afterward.

Beth Hammond, Director of Christian Education at St. Anthony on the Desert in Scottsdale, Arizona, will facilitate our workshop and conversation. Beth is a knockout Christian educator and a member of the writing team for the Seasons of the Spirit Christian formation resources. Her leadership on this day will allow all in our community who wish to participate in the discussion to do so, and we expect that her expertise will help us turn our vision into reality. She'll help us explore how we can do things even better now, what we want to aim for in the future, and how we can support teachers and parents as we tend to the spiritual growth of our children.

If you have questions, or to sign up to help out or attend, please call the church office or Deacon Anne Smith at 209-476-9225 or email katesma@gmail.com.

Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children... (Deuteronomy 6:4-7a)

Anonymus 4 is a female a cappella quartet, based in New York City. Their main performance genre is medieval music, although they have also premiered works by living composers such as John Tavener and Steve Reich. The group currently comprises of Marsha Genensky, Susan Hellauer, Ruth Cunningham, and Jacqueline Horner.

The name of the group is a pun on the name used to refer to an anonymous English music theorist of the late 13th century, Anonymous IV, who is the principal source on the two famous composers of the Notre Dame school, Léonin and Pérotin.

Originally formed in 1986 to experiment with the sound of medieval chant and polyphony as sung by higher voices, Anonymus 4 has become renowned for its astonishing vocal blend and technical virtuosity. The four women of Anonymus 4 combine musical, literary, and historical scholarship with 20th-century performing intuition as they create innovative programs interweaving music with poetry and narrative. Anonymus 4 has performed to critical acclaim on music series throughout North America, in such cities as Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, Denver, Houston, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Seattle, Vancouver and Washington, DC. Anonymus 4 appears in concerts and festivals throughout Europe, the Far East, Australia, New Zealand, and throughout Japan.

Celebrating the Life of Helping Hands

Helping Hands was a ministry born at St. John's circa 1977 to provide meals for those in need after surgery, hospital stays, and other emergencies. Over the years, untold numbers of St. John's members cooked and delivered meals to other untold numbers of St. John's members.

Unfortunately, over the last few years, for a variety of reasons, this ministry has ceased to function. Plans are afoot to incorporate some of the most helpful aspects of Helping Hands into a new ministry we hope to call Befrienders. Look for more about Befrienders

We wish to honor Helping Hands and all those who made the ministry what it was. Those who served or were served by this ministry or who would just like to come and share the memories and refreshments are invited to a Celebration of Life party on Friday, September 24, 2010, at St. John's at 2:00 pm. Please RSVP to Patsy Gorczyca at 367-1812 or to Ann Marie at 369-3381.

Other Ways to be Green

We Recycle Styrofoam cups @ DART in Lodi.

In the kitchen at St. John's is a blue bin for collecting and recycling Styrofoam items, especially cups. We have a very unique opportunity in Lodi, in that DART packaging company has a manufacturing plant here. They make styrofoam plates, cups, etc.; sometimes these are seen as a bad choice versus paper plates and cups. However, they have set up a place to take cups, plates and even food service 'clam shell' containers to a parking lot area near their factory at 1400 Victor Road (at Guild). The collecting area is open 24 hours a day, but there is no refund given for what is brought in. However, it is all reused in their process in the nearby factory, so these things can be used and recycled in our town. We would encourage individual households to find out more, so they can get these containers out of the waste stream and take them to DART. Go to <http://www.dartcontainer.com/web/enviro.nsf/pages/enrecy.html> to find out more!

Yoga for Christians

Yoga will start up again on Tuesday, September 21 at 9:30 am. Please note the new day of the week and new time. We will give this a try to see how it works for everyone. Newcomers are welcome! This is gentle Yoga where you are in control of your own body and what you can do. We do stretching and balancing exercises, deep relaxation, plus meditation and prayer. Please call Patsy Gorczyca at 367-1812 if you have any questions or concerns.

Women of St. John's Dinner

Come Be Beadazzled

The Women of St. John's are lucky to have Kathy Bell as our guest speaker on Thursday September 16, 2010. She is not only a member of St. John's but also represents Bunches of Beads, our local bead shop in Lodi. She will be speaking about her love of jewelry making. We may even have a fun craft for everyone to make and take home. This will be after a bi-monthly dinner beginning at 5:30 pm at the church. Please sign up on the sheet at the back of the church. See you there.

Connections & Directions

" We can offer a sense of what it means to be treasured. We can offer hope in every encounter.

We also bring together the various parts of Christ's body. We gather the members into one."

(From A Wing and A Prayer, Katharine Jeffers Schori, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, USA)

In speaking of one small congregation in Washington DC who is making a big impact in their community, she writes "They (vestry, clergy, every baptized person in that congregation) understand that they exist as enablers of God's dream, and they are willing to use every resource at hand to build that dream. "

In the August newsletter, you read how a group was formed as a follow up to a workshop held at St John's in June. We explained our focus and invited you to join us. Today we are known by "Connections and Directions". Connections and Directions gathered on Thursday night August 19th to share The Word (Acts 2: 42-47 Fellowship of the Believers) and to explore the topic of communications within St Johns and with the community outside our sanctuary walls. As we explore, we see the interdependence between developing the strength of our connections internally and improving the quality of our outreach to connect externally.

At that meeting, we discussed ways in which we connect people to "what's happening at St John's", extend a personal touch, and communicate who we are, what's important to us, what characterizes us as a community. You might call this Outbound communications. Each of us in the group is being "sent forth" to listen, ask, observe, and seek out how we might make each of these more effective. When we come back to the table in September, we'll offer our findings, share ideas, and select some of them for follow up action. These areas include Sunday Announcements (verbal and bulletin), Monthly Newsletter, Website, Bulletin Boards and Ministry Table(s), Personal Outreach (eg phone, visits, message center), Calendars/Meetings/Special Events, and External Outreach: in print (newspaper/publications, flyers, external signage) and electronic (eg internet-based social networking like FaceBook, eMail). We also discussed various types of Directories, some of which are already in development.

Outreach which improves Inbound communication is also of interest to us and will be part of future discussions. This includes how we connect with what is happening or needed outside of St John's in other parishes, ministries, and the community to bring back into our parish and/or build potential partnerships. It also includes how we listen to and get in better touch with the needs of our members.

Would you like to be heard and be a part of this initiative?

- 1) You can join us at our next monthly meeting, Friday, September 10th 7-8:30 pm at St Johns.
(Contact our "convener" Carol Foote, cbf1@me.com, for more info or to get the email notices).
- 2) You can provide us your thoughts on the following questions by sending an email to the address above, mailing a note to the St John's Office Attn: Connections and Directions, or filling out the questionnaire that will be available on the Ministry Table in the narthex starting August 29th and dropping it in the Connections and Directions box that will be there.

Questions (answer any or all as you have something to say):

- 1) What are the most effective ways to let YOU know what is going on, what's available at St. John's, to give you the opportunity to connect and be included (rank top 1, 2, 3) ?
Announcements, Newsletter, Website, Bulletin Boards/Ministry Table, Personal contact, (prefer phone, in person, email?), Meeting/Events, Facebook, Directory, Other (write in)
- 2) What items today do you think most and least express the unique character, personality, heart and core of the Spirit within St. John's as you see it & why? List the 'top 2-3 most' and 'bottom 2-3 least'
You can list items from or within any of the following categories: Our physical facilities, our programs/events (e.g. Arts at St John's, small groups), our worship services (including music), meeting our people face to face, our outreach (garden, food ministry, LEMs), any of the communications vehicles listed in #1 above, or write in your own
- 3) If you were granted 3-5 wishes that would make any of the items listed in #1 more effective in connecting with and involving you or better express what makes St John's St John's, what would they be?
- 4) Is there anything we have "too much of" and/or "not enough of" when it comes to building connections and communicating the Spirit within the parish? What feels "just right"?

Hope to hear from you!

From the Diocesan office...

Convention will be an exciting time. Ms Bonnie Anderson, the President of the House of Deputies will be the keynote speaker on Friday Evening and the preacher at the closing Eucharist on Saturday afternoon. As has been our custom, the business of convention will be bracketed by a number of workshops for all delegates and convention attendees. You will be hearing more about convention as it draws nearer.

The convention planning committee has set a tentative schedule for the Annual Meeting of the Convention of the Diocese of San Joaquin. The two-day convention will be held October 15 and 16 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Modesto, California. Registration forms available on the diocesan Web site, www.diosanjoaquin.org, or on the ministry table at St. John's; early registration is by October 5th.

The Diocesan Altar Guild is having a gathering on Saturday, September 11 at 10:00 am at St. Matthew's in San Andreas. All are welcome! See the church bulletin board for detailed information.

St. John's Community Garden

St. John's should be proud of all the work we have put into our community garden. We accomplished a lot! We prepared the land, planted, installed drip systems and harvested! We planted seeds (in trays) and will be planning to transplant them in about a month—watch the bulletin for the date. We'd love to have help planting.

In between now and then, please feel free to go out in the garden, pull a weed or two, harvest and make sure all is well.

We had three requests for personal plots and by the time you receive this newsletter—they may be out there planting. Be sure to welcome them.

Please remember our garden and help it continue to grow and be healthy.

Thank you to everyone for their thoughts and prayers during my surgery. And a special thank you to Father Harold for visiting me at the hospital.

Chester George

Raising Funds at No Cost to You

St. John's has partnered with a few local businesses in Lodi -

If you shop at Raley's be sure to use your scrip card. These cards can be used at any Raley's. If you don't have one—see the parish office.

Safeway scrip; we are now signed up with Safeway to receive credit on purchases made by our members. All you have to do is bring in your Safeway rewards card; the office will record your number and set it up so St. John's gets credit for a portion of the sales.

Fresh Cleaners donates a portion of sales for St. John's members. Be sure to tell them you're a member of St. John's.

Go Green

We have a number of programs currently in place that help the environment as well as St. John's:

- * We recycle all our paper
- * We recycle ink cartridges and cell phones
- * We use Fresh Cleaners (a non-toxic dry cleaner) for our dry cleaning
- * Recycle styrofoam

Can you think of other ways we can be a greener parish?
We'd love to hear your ideas.

Men's BBQ

Join the Men's BBQ Sunday, September 12 for some great barbecue and fellowship.

St. Margaret's Small Group

St. Margaret's is a study group here at St. John's that's been meeting twice a month for over fifteen years. We focus on issues relevant to women and follow the guidelines for a small group: maintaining confidently, pursuing lively and friendly discussions and keeping to a predictable meeting schedule.

Some of my favorite books from the last fifteen years include: "The Four Agreements" by Don Miguel Ruiz, Anne Morrow Lindbergh's "Gift from the Sea," and "Women's Bodies, Women's Wisdom" by Christiane Northrup, MD.

Our latest study was on a book by Sue Monk Kidd, "The Dance of the Dissident Daughter: A Woman's Journey for Christian Tradition to the Sacred Feminine." It portrays a very different perspective than my experience but it gave me a lot to think about. One of the memorable quotes, for me was "A life lived in fear is a life half lived."

September 20 we will be hosting an Open House for other women who might be interested in joining our group. We will meet at 4:30 pm at the church. The book we will be studying is The Voice of Knowledge by Don Miguel Ruiz.
