

Monday Message
October 12, 2020

From Fr. Peter: Welcome to our week! And what a day yesterday. Marie, Harry and I want to thank all of you who were a part of our Anniversary Celebration Yesterday. The chance to see people masked face to masked face, and the time volunteers took to set up everything – signs, fans. We received so many nice cards and tremendously thoughtful gifts to commemorate our first year together. We feel extremely grateful for the kind love and support shown us yesterday, and we pray that you feel it from us.

Also yesterday, those who gathered on Zoom at Coffee Hour enjoyed an opportunity to meet our new seminarian, Jessica Harmon. She shared that over the course of this academic year, her time with us will be devoted to service support, occasional preaching, producing the online Children's Service, offering a bible/book study, and, as will be advertised in our Thursday Epistle, she has a talent from afar of helping people navigate things like Facebook Pages, and Zoom. She remotely taught her 83 year old grandmother to do the latter, and wants to help anyone in our congregation so that they can join us for events like worship, and after service virtual coffee hour!

Here, now are this week's offerings.....

TUESDAY Bible Study Continues Tuesday 10:30 a.m. on Zoom– The dive into and through Paul's letter to the Ephesians will continue this Tuesday, when we will go through the first half of the final chapter (chapter 6) of Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians. All are invited whether you have been a part of the course thus far or not.
